NOTICE

Subject: Continuation of Previous Academic Year's Student Committee

This is to inform all students that the Student Committee formed during the last academic year will remain active and continue its functions until a new Student Committee is officially constituted for the current academic year.

All members of the previous Student Committee (except 6th Semester) are requested to continue their duties and responsibilities as usual. Students are advised to cooperate with the existing committee for the smooth functioning of college activities.

Further announcements regarding the formation of the new Student Committee will be made in due period.
